This role really adds up...

Have you got a head for figures and want to cash it in for a great job? If you are more than just a numbers whiz and want to work with upbeat, like minded people...then this role has the right formula for you! McDougall Reidy & Co is a private company whose business focus is property development, investment and funds management. Working with an extremely hardworking and professional team, this role is based in utterly enviable offices on the edge of princess wharf complete with car park and fantastic benefits. You will be challenged, supported and driven to do and be the best you can. Accounts payable, accounts receivable and general accounts support make this role a well rounded and fulfilling opportunity for a growing accountant. Educational support and the chance to take on more responsibility and grow with the role make this an opportunity it doesn't take a genius to calculate! So if you are a hard working, reliable, highly numerate individual with fantastic communication skills and a super personality, then you+this job=a match made in heaven! Want to count yourself one of the lucky ones?
