

The future is bright

Customer Service Representative
Mt Wellington

Are you looking for a hot customer service role to match the hot NZ summer? Want to be in a position where you can truly shine? If you have a glowing track record in delivering superior customer service and are searching the skies for your next role...then feel the heat today!

Based in Mt Wellington, Corporate Express is part of one of the world's largest business-to-business suppliers of essential office and computer products and services. There is now an opportunity for an experienced customer service representative to step into a senior role in a super team. You will brighten up the skies in this role by taking ownership for incoming calls and supporting the Team Leader. It's a busy and dynamic environment so you must be hungry for the challenge and positive about building your skills and experience sky high.

We are not after just any ray of sunshine...we are looking for a bright star who is willing to commit to this company and show them that summer is here to stay! You must come from a similar role, have experience in supervising staff and a willingness to learn about the business and contribute to its growth. Most important of all in this company is a great attitude so if you can light up a room with your positivity and believe in delivering only the best customer service, then we would like to talk with you.

Make hay while the sun shines and contact us today!
