

Looking for a new bunch?

Customer Service Representative – Mt Eden

Ready to split your current job? Looking for a tasty role to go ape over? If you're a smart monkey and can spot opportunities in the jungle...we have a customer services role that you would have to be bananas to ignore! Our client is a super dooper branded sales and marketing company, based in amazingly vibrant Mt Eden offices. They have an enviable opening in their dynamic team for a ripe and ready CS extraordinaire. This is a varied and challenging position involving order processing, liaising with customers, working closely with the sales team on promotions and generally being the glue that holds this process together. To peel back this opportunity you will have a proven track record in building relationships in an office environment as well as being able to think outside the box and take ownership. Energy, passion and the desire to be a part of a vivacious and progressive team and company will see you swinging from the trees. Crazy benefits include subsidised gym, bonus, car parking, career path, a vibrant social culture and an outrageously large kitchen! Ready to split?
