

Time to get your running shoes on!

Marketing Communications Manager – Auckland Central

Retail is all about that ‘experience’ which keeps customers coming back. It’s a fast paced, dynamic industry calling for individuals who understand the daily pressure, pace and excitement. This is a fantastic opportunity to work across multiple retail brands, in a group with some of the most exciting international and consumer brands available in NZ. You will really know retail marketing; you will own implementing the promotional calendar; including preparing briefs, briefing the agencies, managing the production of marketing communications and measuring its effectiveness. Plus you will have budget responsibility and be familiar with email and dm campaigns. This role will be high profile within the organisation and extremely busy, calling for an individual with loads of energy and commitment to continuously raise the bar. A big plus for you in this role is the opportunity to manage a marketing assistant, have some serious career options, and championing some iconic brands.

Race to the phone now and call Bev on 09 968 8471
or email beverley@jobswithsalt.com

THE VITAL INGREDIENT

